BETSY DEVOS, SECRETARY OF THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, OFFICE OF FEDERAL STUDENT AID	(Judge: _____
Defendants/Appellees	(

COMPLAINT (Abridged)

This cause of action is brought under the Equal Education Opportunity Act of 1974 (as amended), the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1070 et. seq., as amended) and the American with Disabilities Act of 1990. The Plaintiff/Appellant, a law student at an unaccredited, distance-learning law school, contends that her equal access to partake in the First Year Law Student's Exam (FYLSE), administered by the Office of Admissions for The Committee of Bar Examiners of State Bar of California, within three consecutive administrations of her first becoming eligible to take the examination was obstructed in violation of the Equal Protection Clause in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment. Hunter El argues that this hindrance was caused by the State Bar of California's failure to regulate and coordinate Abraham Lincoln University's academic calendar with the testing dates for the FYLSX. This complaint will also argue that it was impossible for Hunter El to register and earn a passing score prior to the expiration of her six-month loan period and impracticable for her to register for the October 2017 FYLSX because she never received written notice of her eligibility certification from her law school or the California State Bar. Furthermore, the Plaintiff/Appellant was denied a request for testing accommodations despite the broad coverage under Title II of the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12131-12134) as amended by the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (Pub. L. 110-325, 122 Stat. 3553, 2008) with prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability by public entities.

The relief sought in Hunter El's Writ of Mandamus was denied by the Supreme Court of California, en banc, on September 26, 2018. Thus, the Plaintiff/Appellant is seeking the same relief in the federal court; mainly a recalculation of her three consecutive administrations of the FYLSX to include the upcoming June 2019 date and an order barring academic dismissal by Abraham Lincoln University Law School. Hunter El is also seeking adjustment of her federal student loans issued from 2016 to present.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that the facts present in this complaint are to the best of my knowledge and belief, true, correct and completed.

Executed this 26th day of October 2018, 17 Safar 1440 A.H.

Respectfully,

Plaintiff/Appellant	(MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

	(Judge: _____
STATE BAR OF CALIFORNIA,	(
COMMITTEE OF BAR EXAMINERS	(
Defendant/Appellee	(

As the Plaintiff/Appellant, I request that the District Court grant a 30-day extension to perfect the Notice of Appeal/Complaint and other related filings, as necessary, because, I was impacted by both Hurricane Florence and Hurricane Michael. Both events were declared major national disasters by FEMA—South Carolina Hurricane Florence (DR-4394) was declared on September 16, 2018 for the period of September 8, 2018—October 8, 2018 and Hurricane Michael, which weakened to a Tropical Storm as it passed the midlands of South Carolina. With regard to Hurricane Florence, I suffered a crack in my ceiling drywall from strong winds which required an immediate, temporary repair with insulation board. In addition, my means of communication was curtailed by early closures by local government agencies and businesses September 12-14, 2018. Although I was not under an evacuation order, I had to prepare to shelter in place with the necessary supplies (i.e. water, batteries, medications, fuel, etc.) The frenzy of pre-storm activity meant many store shelves were left bare or scarce. With regard to Hurricane Michael, I experienced intermittent power outages that knocked out Internet and telephone services. I also had water leakage from my roof from previous damages incurred. These events adversely impacted my intent to file timely.

Finally, On September 25, 2018, prior to the denial of my Writ of Mandate, I mailed a Notice of Errata to the Supreme Court of California which was delivered on September 28, 2018 after the order was issued. At present, no disposition regarding this secondary filing is reflected in the court docket for Case Number S251294.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that the facts present in this Motion are to the best of my knowledge and belief, true, correct and completed.

Executed this 25th day of October 2018.
